“You have the right to remain silent and not say anything which might incriminate yourself. Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law. You can stop answering questions I ask you at any time. You have the right to have a lawyer with you when you go to court or during questioning. If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed to you. Do you understand these rights? If so, do you wish to proceed with questioning at this time?”
